MEMBERS' CHOICE

AWARDS

In our September / October issue of Go Magazine, we asked you to share your favorites in the Carolinas. You submitted your votes, and the results are in! From great eats and fun festivals to upscale accommodations and popular attractions, here are your "Best of" picks in the Carolinas.

Charleston Crab House

BEST SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

"It's located on the water, within view of a drawbridge. The menu offers Lowcountry style food and a good variety."

SOUTH CAROLINA: Charleston Crab House, James Island

NORTH CAROLINA: Waterfront Seafood Shack, Calabash

BEST COMFORT FOOD RESTAURANT

SOUTH CAROLINA: Villa Tuscanna, Myrtle Beach

NORTH CAROLINA: Fullers Restaurant, Fayetteville

"Good southern-style cooking – seafood, BBQ, fried cornbread fritters and a great selection of desserts."

BEST FESTIVAL

SOUTH CAROLINA: SC Jazz Festival, Cheraw

NORTH CAROLINA: Artsplosure, Raleigh

"This free arts festival takes over downtown Raleigh. It's fun for the whole family!"

BEST HOTEL

"Walking into this hotel is like going on the set of the TV show Mad Men."

SOUTH CAROLINA: The Dewberry, Charleston

NORTH CAROLINA: The Omni Grove Park Inn, Asheville

BEST BEACH

SOUTH CAROLINA: Myrtle Beach

NORTH CAROLINA: Coquina Beach, Outer Banks

"Because it's part of the Cape Hatteras National Seashore, there are no houses or commercial buildings. And, it's a great place to spot dolphins!"

BEST ATTRACTION

SOUTH CAROLINA: Riverbanks Zoo, Columbia

NORTH CAROLINA: Old Salem, Winston-Salem

"Don't miss a trip to Winkler's Bakery, where you can sample the famous Moravian sugar cake and baked goods, baked in the same oven Moravians have been utilizing since the early 1800s."
