TURKS & CAICOS SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY WINS 5 STAR AWARD

LONDON, England (December 11, 2016) – Turks & Caicos Sotheby's International Realty, a luxury real estate firm based in Providenciales, Turks & Caicos, has been presented with the 5 Star Award for Best Real Estate Agency Marketing in The 24th International Property Awards 2016, at The Savoy Hotel. Turks & Caicos Sotheby's International Realty competed against the best real estate professionals across America to be awarded this title.

The International Property Awards are the region's largest, most prestigious, and widely recognized property awards and are judged by an independent panel of 70 industry experts. The judges consider design, quality, service, innovation, originality, and commitment to sustainability when making their decision. The judging panel is chaired by Lord Caithness, Lord Best, and Lord Liverpool, members of the House of Lords in the UK Parliament. The Telegraph newspaper is the headline sponsor of The Property Awards, with Emirates the official airline sponsor.

“We are thrilled to have won this prestigious award for our marketing efforts. This demonstrates that our real estate agency delivers an unprecedented level of marketing initiatives within our jurisdiction as well as in comparison to the Americas region,” states Denise Douglas, Office and Marketing Manager for Turks & Caicos Sotheby's International Realty. “The preparation for this event brought to light just how vast our marketing program is which ultimately benefits our vendors and purchasers.”
