Celebrating over 85 years of beautiful weddings and grand receptions.

My daughter has dreamed of her wedding at the Brown since she was 8 years old. Thank you for helping us create the wedding of her dreams!

There is not one thing I would change. I have had more people come to me and say it was the best/nicest/classiest wedding reception they have ever been to. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!!

Thank goodness Louisville still has a historic, classic hotel in the downtown area that promotes excellent, friendly service. May the Brown Hotel continue to provide all local and out of town guests with such a special experience.

“The Crystal Ballroom is such an elegant place to have a wedding reception. The decorations and floral arrangements selected for the event made the setting absolutely spectacular. The dinner was appealing to the eye and to the palate. At the conclusion of the day, my daughter told me that the entire day had been perfect and she would not have changed a thing.”
