GREENBELT, Md., October 31, 2016 – Chesapeake Hospitality, a dynamic third-party hotel management company, announced today that it has assumed management of the Indigo Hotel St. Louis Downtown, the Holiday Inn Washington-College Park hotel and the Detroit Airport Marriott hotel. Kim Sims, president of Chesapeake Hospitality, made the announcement.

“We are proud to bring our industry-leading and results-driven management strategies to these iconic properties,” said Sims. “As we continue to expand our management portfolio, these conveniently located hotels will be an asset in allowing us to deliver a rewarding hotel experience for our guests, no matter if they’re in town for business or pleasure.”
