About Hotel

The Name, The Story

For more than four decades, the Harbor Hotel has been a respite for social independence. People from all walks of life have found us by venturing to the Cape's outermost edge. Our arms-open welcome normalizes the freedoms of an open-minded community. Our splendid, retro style represents the very best of mid-century modern America when minds opened and stigmas dissipated. The Harbor Hotel embodies a time when people had license to indulge, within reason. We're close to everything P-town offers, but far enough away to relax and enjoy perfect Cape summers. Our guests soak up fresh ocean air and unsullied views, signature Cabana Bar drinks, a hand-picked playlist, an open grassy activity space, cozy fire pits, and delicious fare in the open-air Whaler Lounge.
