

Best new outdoor spaces, rooftop bars to eat and drink in New York City this summer

The Mykonos Rooftop perched above the Hayden Hotel is a Greek-inspired oasis. (COURTESY OF HAYDEN HOTEL)

BY

JEANETTE SETTEMBRE

 FOLLOW

NEW YORK DAILY NEWS
Saturday, June 17, 2017, 6:00
AM

Kick off the summer on a high note.

Rooftop bar season is in full swing with plenty of brand new outdoor spaces to take in panoramic views, sip seasonal drinks and shamelessly pose for selfies with the city skyline in clear view.

Whether you're seeking island vibes atop a Greek-influenced roof in Chelsea, want to pig out on "The Gavone" breakfast in an inviting Italian garden in Queens, or would enjoy a fish taco picnic near the East River, there's an outdoor spot for you.

Hayden Rooftop atop Hotel Hayden

(127 W. 28th St)

QUINN