HIDDEN PARADISE

Debuting just a couple of months ago in the Riviera Maya, the Andaz Mayakoba Resort, with crystal-clear lagoons, mangroves, gardens, six miles of freshwater canals, and views of the Caribbean Sea, features 214 guestrooms, including 41 luxury suites each with its own intimate plunge pool. Its 10,000-sq.-ft. Naxan Spa, housing six treatment rooms that invite the outdoors in, focuses on therapies that incorporate indigenous rituals such as Mayan Time of Reflection and a Mayan Celebration. It also features an interactive apothecary bar replete with all-natural, locally inspired ingredients that have been hand-selected for the resort. andazmayakoba.com

RESORT WITHIN A RESORT

Recently unveiled is Pueblo Bonito Pacifica Golf & Spa Resort's The Towers at Pacifica, an all-inclusive, adults-only enclave in Cabo San Lucas. The high-end "resort within a resort" retreat features 47 Club Level suites and rooms, with such amenities as British Butler Institute-certified butler service, custom-stocked mini bars and refreshment areas, portable Beats speakers, luxurious Egyptian-cotton bedding, pillow menu and aromatherapy turndown service. There are six pool suites with private plunge pools, as well as the 3,233-sq.-ft. Presidential Suite. The latter offers expansive ocean views, two king bedrooms with their own bathrooms, vanity areas and private terraces equipped with a fire pit, jacuzzi and outdoor shower. For those who love every part of their vacation catered to, the suite also has its own fully equipped kitchen. And those butlers I mentioned earlier?

They'll be there from get-go to arrivederci, providing help during check-in and check-out, handling on- and off-property reservations, unpacking and packing, and accompanying guests on city excursions. pueblobonito.com/resorts/pacifica

THE COLLECTION

Late last year, Grupo Posadas unveiled La Coleccion, a newly envisioned brand, the company says, that "embodies a portfolio of the group's coveted resorts." La Coleccion, previously known as Fiesta Americana Resort Collection, includes 12 resorts spread throughout Cancun, Riviera Maya, Los Cabos, Acapulco, Puerto Vallarta, Playa del Carmen, Cozumel and Kohunlich in Chetumal, and features a variety of vacation options ranging from family-friendly and adults-only all-inclusive to European plans. The focal point of La Coleccion, said Enrique Calderon, COO for hotel division, Grupo Posadas, in a press statement, is to offer "authentic vacation experiences that celebrate the best of Mexico." At Grand Fiesta Americana Puerto Vallarta All Inclusive Adults Only, for example, guests can hang by the infinity pool or explore the waters of the Bay of Banderas, go on a guided kayak tour, or take a full day to relax at the Haixa Spa. While at The Explorean Cozumel, located minutes from Mayan ruins and coral reefs, guests can take daily guided expeditions that include a trek into the jungle, kayaking or snorkeling, exploring the island by bike, or horseback riding. lacoleccionresorts.com ➤
