

Natural Luxury At Seven Stars Resort In Turks And Caicos

Posted by Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many | Jan 12, 2016 | 0 |

Seven Stars Resort in Turks and Caicos is a luxury resort that is so much more than just a vacation destination. It is a special place, a resort where treasured memories can be made that will last a lifetime. With pristine, white sand beaches and the marine preserve of Princess Alexandra National Park, Seven Stars is in one of the most beautiful spots in the world. The resort is the top rated resort on TripAdvisor.com in The Turks & Caicos islands for a very good reason. It is magnificent!

Photo credit: Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many

Seven Stars Resort is for families who choose not to go the all-inclusive route in Turks & Caicos. It allows guests to savor their stay, plan their individual days, and really experience this fantastic island. I visited with my husband in October and was blown away by the five star accommodations, extraordinary hospitality, and value-added extras that definitely make this resort one to visit with or without your family.

Five Star Accommodations At Seven Stars Resort

Photo credit: Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many

The accommodations at Seven Stars Resort is what makes it one of the most extraordinary resorts in the Caribbean. There are several sleek six-story high rise buildings with luxurious accommodations that frame the outstanding zero-entry pool and the great beach access just beyond the pool.. These are truly home away from home type of suites. Families can choose from junior, one, two, three, or even four-bedroom suites. They include just about everything you can think of to make families feel like they have everything they need.

They have gone above and beyond most resorts in the Caribbean and have added modern amenities like complimentary Wi-Fi, top-notch toiletries, and necessities for families like washer and dryers, refrigerators, and microwaves. The galley kitchen in our oceanview junior suite included a two-burner stove, microwave, small refrigerator, and all the utensils, cookware and dinnerware that we could need. These suites really set Seven Stars apart from other oceanfront resorts. They are subtly luxurious but not stuffy in the least.

The resort is well-situated in Providencia to really experience the city. We walked to one of the poshest grocery stores I have ever been in and were able to grab lunch and bring food back to the suite for dinner. There are also stores and restaurants within a short walk as well. Seven Stars Resorts offers complimentary bicycles if walking isn't your thing. The resort also had a two restaurants on-site as well as room service. Everything we ate at the resort was fantastic!

Extraordinary Hospitality At Seven Stars Resort

Photo credit: Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many

I was impressed with the service at Seven Stars Resort. They were gracious, helpful and accommodating to every guest. I saw them bring towels to the kooky people who decided to go swimming during a thunderstorm. I saw them act with grace and charm when a guest was being very “discriminating” on where to sit at breakfast. Everyone seemed truly happy to be working there and authentically interested in who we were and if we were having the best time.

I love that they offer umbrellas at every corner for those pop-up rain showers and that they bring you a complimentary cold (and strong) drink on arrival. They really do go to extraordinary lengths to ensure each guest is completely satisfied. They even offer grocery delivery service and will stock your suite before you even arrive! I think every guest feels like a VIP at Seven Stars Resort.

Lots Of Value-Added Extras At Seven Stars Resort

While it is lovely to stay at a luxury resort, sometimes families wonder if the price is worth it. At Seven Stars Resort it is!

Photo credit: Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many

They offer so many value-added extras that you can really relax and not worry about being nickel and dimed throughout your vacation. Besides being centrally located so it is easy to walk to the grocery store for snacks, drinks, and even meals, Seven Stars offers all guests a complimentary breakfast buffet each morning. And this is one of the best free buffets I've ever seen. I would have expected to pay $40 to $50 per day for the breakfast I consumed. Just delicious.

Seven Stars Resort also offers a complimentary supervised Kids Club for all children during the day. Let the kids have some fun without you so you can actually have a vacation too! Tennis court time along with rental rackets and balls are complimentary as well, as is the fitness center, bicycle rentals, local phone calls, and the book and DVD library. Want to do something special? The super-helpful activities desk and concierge will set everything up for you.

Photo credit: Maria Smith, TravelingMom of Many

Seven Stars Resort is the place you go to when you want your own space. It is the place to go when you want to explore the new surroundings and are open to new adventures. At a price that is significantly lower than most all-inclusive resorts in the Caribbean, you can bring your whole family and have a wonderful vacation that won't leave you in the Poor House. Interested in other resorts in the Caribbean? Check out these articles on Beaches Resorts Turks and Caicos by myself and Tara Settembre, VIP Traveling Mom.

<https://www.travelingmom.com/destinations-international/natural-luxury-seven-stars-resort-turks-caicos/>