3. Tailgate Event presented by Florida City Gas

Football season may be over, but that doesn't mean we can't already start prepping for this Fall's tailgates (go Canes!) And what better way than to learn the art of the tailgate than from those who know best? At this epic Tailgate Event, we'll be taking notes from Food Network star Ayesha Curry (who also happens to be married to basketball star Stephen Curry), Michelin-starred and James Beard Award-winning Chef Michael Mina, and Emmy Award-winning TV personality Ming Tsai. The trio will be offering up lots of hearty snacks but more importantly (for the veg-crowd), plenty of drinks.
